July 2002

Many of you have been praying for us, and one of those requests was that our house would sell speedily. It finally sold. A realtor was recommended to us, and we felt the Holy Ghost in it so strong. We interviewed him, and placed our home in his hands. Within four days, it sold. Thank the Lord.

We got burned so badly by real estate people in Nebraska, that we did not want to deal with one again. But this gentleman turned out to be an awesome and honest person.

Bind the Enemy

I do not like to give the devil credit, and I don't like to go around talking about him--or talking TO him. But we had an experiences about a week ago that showed his hand in our affairs. He does not want us going to South Carolina....which we take as a positive sign. If the Lord did not plan to win souls there, and do a work through us...why would that old devil care?

We got the word that the seller in South Carolina had changed his mind and did not want to sell the house we thought we had a contract on. Our house was sold, and we thought we had a place in South Carolina to move to. So we were a bit devastated when we heard this. Our realtor in that state (another awesome, honest guy!) said the seller was out of town and could not even be reached till next Monday.

All of a sudden, the Holy Ghost came upon me. I felt the anointing to rebuke that enemy, and did so. I commanded him (in Jesus Name, and with the power of Jesus Christ) to get his hands off this house, that it belonged to us, and he could not have it! Within two hours....guess what....the realtor called with these words: "Everything is back on track. The seller just had a misunderstanding, and everything is okay now." GOD IS GOOD!

God bless you,
Your friend,
Lynda Allison Doty
